The Premiere Oncology Foundation and IncredibleArtist.Com join forces to raise funds for cancer research and treatment.

Art Party Weekend - July 18th-19th

Santa Monica - Last Friday Art4aCure opened with a hugely successful weekend of art, artists, fine food and drink, and hundreds of guests.

Nearly 300 works of art were on display from 20 great artists, making Art4aCure one of the largest group shows in the city! Art covered the walls of Premiere Oncology's vast 28,000 sq.ft. space, turning treatment areas, meeting rooms and offices into a stunning gallery. Guests wandered through the cubicles with their wine glasses and food plates, eager to see what new artwork is around the next corner.

Almost all of the artists on display were able to attend the weekend, giving guests an unparalleled opportunity to meet some of the incredible artists supporting Art4aCure. And what incredible artists they are: Spanning all ages from 24-year-old Jayel Aheram to 86-year-young John Kornfeld; spanning the art realms of painting, photography, pottery, sculpture and more.
